PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

In behalf of ADELAIDE CITY I welcome the officials, players and supporters of ST. GEORGE B.S.C. to Hindmarsh Stadium for round 6 of the Quit National Soccer League of Australia. City extends a special welcome to their coach, Frank AROK, who is also the Australian (Socceroos) Coach.

I would like to give a special mention to the meritorious scheme that Frank AROK has instigated at St. George, and that is the Apprenticeships awarded to young footballers. After being put through a vetting system, they have shown that they have potential, and with the type of coaching they will receive under the scheme, will I am sure, eventually break into the N.S.L. and some, I am sure, will go on to even a higher standard.

As yet, ADELAIDE CITY have not reached that level where apprenticeships can be offered to our junior players. However, a time will come when I am sure City could be involved in such a scheme.

Tonight's game is important to both teams — St. George to improve their position on the table and City to stay with the leaders. I trust that you will all enjoy tonight's game between two of the League's better teams!

Today's Visitors

St. George B.S.C.

Founded 1910

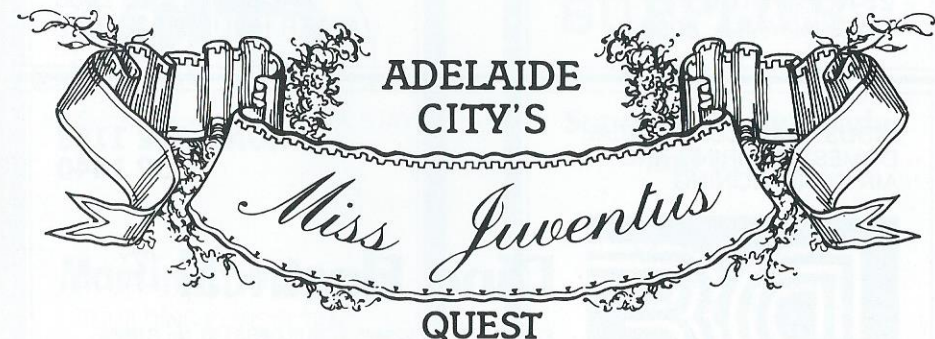

N.S.L. HONOURS

- N.S.L. CUP FINALISTS 1979 (lost to Adelaide City)
- N.S.L. GRAND FINAL WINNERS 1982 & 1987
- N.S.L. CHAMPIONS 1983

ADELAIDE CITY and ST. GEORGE have met 18 times since the inception of the N.S.L. in 1977, with CITY winning 8, drawing 5, losing 5 (Goals: for 29, against 20) and ST. GEORGE. . . . winning 5, drawing 5, losing 8 (Goals: for 20, against 29).

ST. GEORGE, coached by wily Frank AROK (Socceroos coach) are currently in 11th position on the N.S.L. table. They are a force to be reckoned with and in the team tonight are two players who are experienced Socceroos: Andy KOCZKA (10 Socceroo appearances) and goal keeper Mike GIBSON (8 Socceroo appearances). They will come out with all guns firing. Their previous encounter with City at Hindmarsh Stadium (26/1/89) saw them steal a 1—0 win. Supporters both for and against tonight's teams will be treated to a great game of football!

This very popular quest will be run again during the 1989/90 season.

A $ FOR GLORY

Australian Soccer Federation chairman, Mr. Ian BRUSASCO's bid to introduce a fund for the up-keep of the national teams is a good move. I remember when I first played junior football, it cost 5/- (shillings) a game.

BAD PASS

Four players — told to urinate on the pitch by witch doctors — were banned for life by the Zimbabwe F.A. The members of the Southern Tongogara team were advised that "by passing" beforehand on the field would ensure victory. However, the Z.I.F.A. were not amused. The wet warm-up didn't work, Tongogara lost 2—0.

Stoke City (England) recently made their former footballing legend, Sir Stanley Mathews, club president. Sir Stan, at the age of 73, returned from Canada to live in the potteries in September. He said, "When I first joined Stoke City more than 50 years ago, I never dreamed I would one day be president".

Robert ZABICA, Alex TOBIN and Aurelio VIDMAR have been selected by Soccer Coach, Frank AROK (also St. George's coach) in the initial training squad for matches against MOSCOW TORPEDO in Sydney on 19th January and Melbourne on 2nd February, 1990. Alex TOBIN has made 6 appearances for the Socceroos, Aurelio VIDMAR 2. Robert ZABICA yet to score. CONGRATULATIONS!

Welcome to the S.A.S.F. Juniors & Youth page

COACHING FOR THE DEVELOPMENT SQUADS

After their successful trip to the country in September, where they were undefeated, the U/16-17 Development Squad is involved in a Level II Australian Coaching Course. Each player is striving to complete this course and qualify to become a Level II Coach. The aim of this exercise is not to forget about their soccer career and become a Coach, but to have a better knowledge of the game. They started two weeks ago and so far so good. We are all really very pleased with the initial results and we are aiming for total success at the end. Also, we expect during their free time next year that these players will become involved in our Primary School programmes, thereby passing their knowledge on to younger players.

The U/15 Squad is working on another Level II Coaching Course as players, being run by the S.A.S.F., helping the future Coaches to achieve success. During January this squad will be involved in a Level I Coaching Course as candidates. The U/15 Squad worked very hard last Sunday to show skill, technique and ability to the Head Coach of the Australian Institute of Sport (Canberra) Ron SMITH. Ron came to S.A. to view future players for the A.I.S. in Canberra. These players will be eligible for the 1993 Youth World Cup Championships.

See you next week with information about the six players from S.A. who are one step ahead.

Carlos BUZZETTI
Development Officer S.A.S.F.

Bits & Pieces by Vic Migliaccio

CITY'S Junior Director, Mr. Peter MARAFIOTI, wishes to announce compulsory training will start in April. However, a kick about, keep fit evening is held at City's Unley grounds every Wednesday evening from 6:00 p.m. . . . ALL WELCOME!

New from the National Soccer League headquarters: If you ring 005 52 1150, you'll listen in to a live N.S.L. soccer commentary. Also, if you want the week-end results 'phone 005 52 1166.

Work will start soon on the UPGRADING OF HINDMARSH STADIUM. S.A.S.F. General Manager, Mr. Mike WELLS, said that the installation of a new lighting system is due to go ahead between February and July. Also in July, the actual physical work will commence.

Just in case you missed it on your screen — SBS TV are giving away FREE WORLD CUP STICKERS. Write to 'Free World Cup Stickers, PO Box 028, Milsons Point NSW 2061' with a self-addressed envelope, for your sticker.

New Zealand International striker, Declan EDGE, watched CITY'S exciting 3—1 Win against Sydney Croatia (26/11/89) from the special guests enclosure at Hindmarsh Stadium with his girlfriend, Kerri, at his side. After the match Declan said that he could not wait to get into the action, "The standard of the match was very different from the New Zealand style, where it was played more in a kick and rush fashion, this is more like the European style. City were always on top in a pulsating match which produced skill, thrills and goals a-plenty - great stuff," said Declan.

SUNDAY NIGHT SUMMER SOCCER appears to be here to stay — City's Treasurer and Club Manager, Mr. John DI PINTO, said from now on - unless for special reasons - all home matches are to be played on Sunday night.

Did you know that MARADONA is 29, and he is currently scoring goals at the rate of one per game for Napoli, the Italian club that pays him $A1.92 million a year?!

Steve MIGLIACCIO and his cheer squad were in great voice during the Sydney Croatia match, and they sure made a difference. Steve, of course, is the man who leads City's cheer squad, and tonight he will again be at his usual spot - the northern end of the grandstand. A supporter suggested that that area should be known as "Steve's Cheer Squad Corner". KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK!

As we approach round 15 of the Italian first division or "Serie A", Napoli is on line for its second Championship since being formed on August 1st, 1926. Tonight's matches are: Ascoli V Lazio, Atalanta V Udinese, Bari V Napoli, Bologna V Lecce, Inter V Lecce, Inter V Genoa, Juventus V Cesena, Roma V Cremonese, Sampdoria V Milan and Verona V Fiorentina. Radio 5EBI-FM will broadcast live the progressive results of these matches from 1 a.m.

The S.A.S.F. has announced that the Ampol Cup Series will begin on Friday, January 5th and the Foundation SA State League will kick off on Saturday, March 30th with the Second Division on April 7th.

Through this match programme, I would like to make a special request from all our supporters, to SBS TV (Mr. Les MURRAY and Co.) if it could be possible to repeat the outstanding segment on World Soccer, November 24th, about 'MARADONA'. On behalf of all Adelaide City supporters, thanks for giving Soccer such a good coverage!

If you were one of the 4,000 plus crowd at Hindmarsh Stadium two weeks ago, when CITY carved up Sydney Croatia 3—1, you would have witnessed a phenomena — Paul SHILLABEER scoring his first league goal for Adelaide City. . . . Now for Paul's first 20.
